Data Protection Statement

All data is securely held in the SIMSR Alumni Relations Office and will be treated confidentially and with sensitivity for the benefit of SIMSR and its members. The data may be made available to our academic and administrative departments, recognised alumni chapters, and to agents contracted by SIMSR for specific alumni-related projects.

Data is used to promote close links between SIMSR and our alumni through a full range of alumni activities, including the sending of publications, the promotion of benefits and services available to alumni, notification of alumni events and programmes involving academic and administrative departments. Data may also be used in fundraising programmes which might include an element of direct mailing. The data will not be passed on to external commercial organisations.
